Overview

What is a telecom battery backup system?

A telecom battery backup system is a comprehensive portfolio of energy storage batteries used as backup power for base stations to ensure a reliable and stable power supply. As we are entering the 5G era and the energy consumption of 5G base stations has been substantially increasing, this system is playing a more significant role than ever before.

What is backup power in 5G HetNet?

Especially for the cloud radio access network (C-RAN) scenario with many baseband units (BBUs) pooled together, it is natural and convenient to supply backup power for those BSs all together. The scenario of 5G HetNet consisting of macro and small cells, in which the backup power is supplied by battery groups.

Does BS load rate affect the power consumption of 5G networks?

the power consumption of AAU nearly linearly increases with the growth of BS load rate, while that of the BBU is quite stable at varying load rates. As the power consumption of 5G BSs is significantly higher than that of 4G BSs, we focus on the backup power allocation of 5G networks in this work.

Should telecommunication operators invest in a telecom battery backup system?

Investing in a telecom battery backup system is always one of the priorities for telecommunication operators in the 5G era. Sunwoda 48V telecom batteries have a capacity covering 50Ah-150Ah, which can easily meet the power backup needs of macro and micro base stations.
