Overview

How much energy would a solar roof produce?

Our solar roof located in Italy (where electricity costs to householders about 0.2226 €/kW*) would produce energy worth €2.982,84. Our solar roof located in Sweden (where electricity costs to householders about 0.1826 €/kW*) would produce energy worth €1.667,14.

How do I know how much solar power my roof can generate?

At the end of the day, the easiest way to accurately determine how much solar power your roof can generate is to talk with installers. They design solar panel systems every day and will be able to assess your roof's unique features and provide you with a production estimate.

How do solar tiles work?

Solar tiles are generally made up of photovoltaic cells, and each tile is connected to the power distribution board via cables. These cells absorb the sunlight and convert it into solar energy, and from this energy, electrical energy is generated.

How much electricity does a 10 kW solar system produce?

For example, a 10 kW system that produces 13 kWh of electricity annually has a production ratio of 1.3 ($13/10 = 1.3$). Ideally, your solar panels will be installed on a south-facing roof at an angle of about 30°. These are the optimal conditions for solar panel production. The closer you get to this, the more electricity your panels produce.
