

Large Uninterruptible Power Supply in Northern Cyprus

Overview

Why is Cyprus worried about power supply adequacy?

Read more: Cyprus faces early concerns over electricity supply adequacy as the gap between power generation and consumption narrowed to dangerous levels yesterday, raising fears of potential blackouts even before the peak summer months.

Why is Cyprus' power grid at a near-maximum capacity?

Cyprus's power grid is operating at near-maximum capacity as prolonged temperatures above 40°C drive power demand close to generation limits, raising concerns about potential disconnections.

How many megawatts can a power plant generate in Cyprus?

The Cyprus Transmission System Operator reported maximum available generation from the Electricity Authority of Cyprus (EAC) units at 1,023 megawatts yesterday evening. However, an additional malfunction at the Dhekelia power station reduced system capacity by 60 megawatts, creating a precarious situation.

Why is Cyprus relying on electricity during night hours?

The Republic of Cyprus's electricity supply faces severe strain during evening hours as power plant failures and ongoing maintenance work continue to plague the national grid, forcing reliance on emergency supplies from the occupied north and renewable sources.
