

Tehran Mine Uses 120-foot Photovoltaic Energy Storage Container

Overview

Should solar PV be installed in mining areas?

If future PV projects continue to follow current land-use patterns at the country level under a business-as-usual scenario, then installing solar PV systems on 65,488 km² of global mining areas could prevent the occupation of 28,311 km² of cropland for solar development.

How much electricity can MPV systems generate in a mining area?

Our findings indicate that, within a global mining area of 65,488 km² with slopes less than 3°, MPV systems could generate 12,373 TWh of electricity annually from 8,670 GW of installed panels worldwide (Table S1).
